SQUIRE PATTON BOGGS

Squire Patton Boggs and the OSBA Capital Conference

What Is Upcoming for Ohio's Public Schools

On behalf of Squire Patton Boggs, it was a pleasure connecting with you at the OSBA Capital Conference. We hope you found value in the conference, our K-12 Education Practice materials and our networking session, Election 2020: What Is Next and What Does it Mean for Ohio's Public Schools?

With more than 25 members, our K-12 Education law team routinely represents approximately one-third of Ohio's school districts, providing counsel on school finance, school construction projects, student services, and labor and employment matters. Further details about our work and team are available here.

We draw upon this extensive experience to regularly produce content on the latest legal and policy developments impacting Ohio educational institutions and entities. You can access this content here and subscribe to receive updates here.

Please do not hesitate to contact any member of our team with any questions. Otherwise, stay well and we look forward to seeing you in the near future or at the next conference.

The contents of this update are not intended to serve as legal advice related to individual situations or as legal opinions concerning such situations, nor should they be considered a substitute for taking legal advice.
