About Magali

Magali Ferreyra Alvarez helps businesses navigate the complexities of UK business immigration by supporting clients in managing their sponsored workforce, with a strong focus on compliance and strategic, commercially-driven solutions.

She advises on a full spectrum of business immigration matters, including key work visa routes such as Skilled Worker and Global Business Mobility, ensuring organisations meet their regulatory obligations while maintaining operational efficiency.

Magali provides comprehensive advisory support, from assisting employees with relocating to or settling in the UK to acting as a trusted liaison between clients and the Home Office. She also advises individuals on settlement, naturalisation and family visa applications, offering clear, practical guidance at every stage of the immigration journey.

Recognised in Legal 500 UK rankings for her expertise in immigration law, Magali is dedicated to delivering seamless workforce mobility and regulatory peace of mind. She has a particular interest in guiding organisations through the complex and everchanging landscape of business immigration, helping minimise disruption while supporting talent retention and acquisition strategies.

Known for her responsive and solutions-focused approach, Magali prides herself on exceptional client service. She works closely with organisations to strengthen compliance frameworks, mitigate risk and implement immigration processes that support business growth while minimising the impact on day-to-day operations.
