

The Foundation's Reach

The Foundation's Reach

The Fellowship program has several dimensions. The Public Policy Fellowship program is the backbone of the Fellowship program. Each Fellowship law school nominates a Fellow, who selects her or his organizations to intern with.

The Sustained Impact Fellowship program focuses on the Foundation's priority areas, and students nominated by their law schools compete for internships with organizations the Foundation partners with. The Justice Jumpstart Fellowship provides incentives to graduating law students to begin their careers in public service.

We are pleased to present the organizations and government offices where our Fellows have worked, beginning in 2005.
