

Firm Serves as Disclosure Counsel to The District of Columbia Office of the CFO in Issuance of US$1 Billion

The firm served as disclosure counsel to The District of Columbia Office of the Chief Financial Officer in its issuance of US$1,032,545,000. The bond proceeds, which consist of Series 2020A Bonds and Series 2020B Bonds, will be used to pay for capital project expenditures under the District's capital improvements plan, refund the District's outstanding General Obligation Commercial Paper Bond Anticipation Notes, Series 2019, defease and currently refund the District's outstanding Income Tax Secured Revenue Refunding Bonds, Series 2010A and pay costs of issuance. The transaction closed March 11, 2020.

This is the firm's first transaction serving as Disclosure Counsel to the District since 2013, as we were recently re-appointed on the Bond and Disclosure slates for the District in late 2019. The team was led by partners Alethia Nancoo and Sandy MacLennan, principal Nathan Treu and associate Alexis Chandler.

Preeminent Public Finance Practice

We have one of the largest, most diverse and highly regarded public finance practices in the US. We have been a nationally recognized bond counsel firm for more than 120 years and have been listed in The Bond Buyer's Red Book since its inception in the 1940s. Our public finance lawyers serve as bond, borrower, disclosure and underwriters' counsel on billions of dollars of the nation's largest, most complex and innovative municipal financings every year. In 2019, we served as counsel on nearly 600 transactions, totaling over $41.6 billion. In the last five years, we served as counsel on over 3,500 transactions, totaling more than $200 billion.
