

Squire Patton Boggs Advises District of Columbia on US$31 Million Bond Refinancing for Washington International School

July 2018

A Squire Patton Boggs Washington DC Public & Infrastructure Finance team has advised the District of Columbia's Revenue Bond Program on a bond issuance for the Washington International School, a coeducational independent school that serves 900+ students from preschool through grade 12 on two campuses in NW Washington DC. Washington International School has been serving the DC area as an exemplary learning community since 1966. The financing enabled the school to achieve substantial interest rate savings by refinancing prior bonds issued by the District and loaned to the school, which financed the cost of acquisition, renovation and improvement of various school facilities. The team was led by JR Clark, Tatjana Misulic and Michael Cullers.
