ADVANCING JUSTICE FOR 25 YEARS

Celebrating 25 Years of Advancing Justice
Together, We Can Do Even More

Dear Colleagues, Fellows, Deans and Friends of the Foundation,

This has been an exhilarating year of celebration of the Foundation's Silver Anniversary and our many achievements. This commemorative report highlights our 25-year history and accomplishments, while also shining brightly on 2025.

This year's 33 Fellows brought the total number of Fellows we've supported to 419. We are proud of all our Fellows and the invaluable support they have provided to hundreds of nonprofit legal organizations and government offices, ultimately benefiting countless numbers of people in the United States and across the globe.

This year, we took several new steps and built on existing ones:

- We doubled our Sustained Impact Fellowship commitment to veterans' justice,
- We revived the "Issues of Our Time" series with a session on the tariff cases,
- We added the Scalia School of Law to our list of Fellow law schools, and
- We announced a new Rural Justice Fellowship in southeast Ohio to respond to the need for lawyers in underserved rural communities.

The celebration of our 25th reached a crescendo in July with moving speeches by Squire Patton Boggs' Fred Nance and Dean Cynthia Nance of the University of Arkansas Law School, plus three energized panels. We capped off the year with our Distinguished Fellow and Distinguished Service Awards, recognizing three inspiring leaders.

We received a warm celebratory embrace from Firm Leadership, especially appreciated as we navigate a period of shifting winds. Scores of you have engaged with the Foundation—on the board or on committees, as mentors, and as financial contributors. Thank you!

As we begin the Foundation's next 25 years, much lies ahead. We will continue to inspire and assist Fellows to become leaders. We can't do it without you—the Foundation relies on your generous financial support to fund our Fellowship program. To contribute, please follow the guidance on the back page of this brochure.

Thank You!

Message from Mark Ruehlmann, Michele Connell and Fred Nance

Twenty-five years ago, the Squire Patton Boggs Foundation was created as a living tribute to the legacy of advocacy, justice, and civic responsibility. Over the years, our Fellows have contributed in excess of $13.5 million in legal services globally. An impressive figure for sure, but the ripple effect of these endeavors should not be measured in dollars alone.

From fighting for immigration reform and protecting civil rights, to shaping environmental policy and advancing global health, giving a voice to children in the foster care system and providing legal assistance to veterans, the diversity of their work reflects the needs of the world they serve.

Indeed, these efforts are priceless and something we should all take pride in. We would like to express our deep gratitude to everyone who has contributed to the Foundation's success: attorneys and business professionals who championed the mission, Foundation board members who shaped strategy and sustained momentum, schools, nonprofit partners, and community leaders who have welcomed and supported Fellows in their work.

This milestone belongs to all. But most of all, it belongs to the Fellows—each one a beacon of what is possible when ambition meets purpose. Their collective impact reaches far beyond the sum of individual contributions.

Celebrating 25 Years

History

The Foundation was established in 2000, endowed with the Firm's awarded lawyers' fees from the Ironworkers pro bono case. In that case, won by Foundation President John Oberdorfer and others, a federal court in Washington DC struck down racial barriers to union membership faced by African American construction workers building the Washington DC Metrorail system. Inspired by Tom Boggs, the Fellowship Program began in 2005.

WHEELS OF JUSTICE TURN BIAS SUIT INTO 17-YEAR ORDEAL

By Michael York

Jessie Berger says he has gotten pretty good at waiting. For almost 18 years, Berger has been trying to get the federal courts to give him what he believes he is owed.

Berger is the lead plaintiff in a race discrimination case filed in 1975 against the Iron Workers Reinforced Rodmen Local 201. The construction workers, all of them black men, have won every important stage of the litigation.

What Fellows Say About the Foundation

"This experience didn't just influence my future—it defined it. I don't think I would've taken the unpaid internship with NWIRP had I not gotten the SPB Foundation Fellowship. So I just wanted to say again, thank you!"

Cecelia (Cece) Mercer

2025 Fellowship Class
Case Western Reserve University School of Law
Fellow at Northwest Immigration Rights Project

"A common thread amongst the Fellows was a dedication to public service, creating a sense of community I had yet to encounter during my law school career."

Grant MacLaurin

2025 Fellowship Class
SMU Dedman School of Law
Fellow at US Attorney's Office

"SPBF has truly opened doors for me that I didn't realize were there."

Emily Nguyen

2025 Fellowship Class
Georgetown University Law Center
Fellow at Swords to Plowshares

"I feel like I have found my future, and that is a great feeling to have."

Ethan Brown

2025 Fellowship Class
University of Arkansas School of Law
Fellow at Midwest Innocence Project

2025 Distinguished Fellows

The Foundation put an Exclamation Point on its 25th Anniversary Celebration on November 19th by awarding Distinguished Fellow Awards to Laura Graham as "Legal Counsel to the FBI on Our Country's National Security" and Mara Revkin as "Law Professor, Legal Scholar and Human Rights Advocate." George Schutzer was awarded the first Distinguished Service Award.

Laura Graham

Laura Graham, an alumna of the 2019 Fellowship Class, served as a Visiting Professional at the International Criminal Court in The Hague. Dr. Graham is a graduate of Case Western Reserve University School of Law (JD '21), Aberdeen University Scotland (PhD '13), earned several master's degrees, and was an Assistant Professor of Peace and Justice Studies at Tufts University and Trinity College Dublin. Since 2021, Dr. Graham has worked in national security law at the FBI Office of the General Counsel in Washington, DC. She is currently team lead for the domestic terrorism legal team, and an ultra marathoner.

"The work of a public servant is an incredibly challenging one, where people aspire to do great things, often without any sort of recognition. I want to dedicate my award to my fellow public servants, and thank the Foundation."

"I am pleased to join you to celebrate what Laura has done and to join in the celebration of the Foundation's 25th year and the way it supports public service and professional excellence, and partners with law schools around the country. We are proud of Laura's continuing central role in safeguarding our democratic institutions."

Paul Rose

Dean, Case Western Reserve University School of Law

"When Laura began at Case, she was already an extraordinary law student. She had a Ph.D. and had taught, was interested in genocide studies and international criminal law. Six years ago she founded the Yemen civil war accountability project, which continues today. She was and is my star student."

Michael Scharf

Associate Dean for Global Studies, Case Western Reserve University School of Law and a Deans' Circle founder

Mara Revkin

Mara Revkin holds a J.D. from Yale Law School (2016) and a Ph.D. in Political Science from Yale University (2019). An alumna of the 2013 Fellowship class where she supported Human Rights Watch in the Sinai Peninsula, Dr. Revkin also was a Fulbright Fellow, has published extensively, advised United Nations agencies, and is now an Associate Professor at Duke University Law School. Her teaching focuses on armed conflict, peace-building and transitional justice in the Middle East and Africa.

"Thank you so much to the Foundation for your extraordinary support for students pursuing public interest careers for 25 years. I owe everything that I have and everything I have worked for to my mentors and institutions like the Foundation who enabled me or empowered me to do projects that would have been easy to say 'no' to."

"Mara is absolutely fearless, flying into the most dangerous places on earth to study the root causes of political violence and terrorism. No one else is doing this kind of work. She is exactly the kind of person the Foundation ought to celebrate, and I commend the extraordinary dedication of the Firm and the Foundation to public service and globalism."

The Deans' Circle

The Deans' Circle has been instrumental in creating the Sustained Impact Fellowship and Justice Jump Start Fellowship programs.

It has provided valuable overall guidance for the Fellowship program, particularly during the COVID pandemic. This year, the Deans' Circle addressed ways to improve administrative aspects of the Fellowship program, and engaged in discussions (reflecting the times) about promoting civil discourse, a full sense of citizenship, and challenges to addressing controversial topics.

"We embrace this profession as a duty, as a calling, as an obligation to be service leaders. The association with the Foundation, with the Firm, and with the experiences on the ground in organizations in the public sector gives our students the opportunity to know that it's possible."

Marni Lennon

Co-Chair, Deans' Circle
Assistant Dean for Public Interest and Pro Bono
University of Miami School of Law

"Over the past 25 years, the Squire Patton Boggs Foundation has embodied the quiet strength of a seed planted with purpose and nurtured with care. What began as a commitment to public service has grown, through seasons of challenge and change, into a flourishing legacy of justice, equity and hope."

Cynthia Nance

Dean, University of Arkansas School of Law

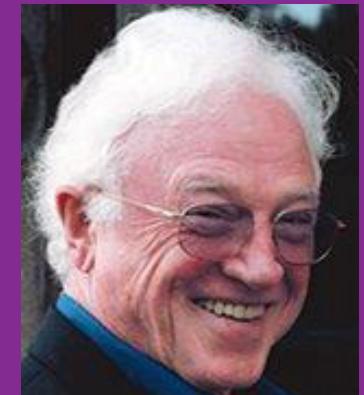

What Our Past Firm Leaders Said

“

I think the Foundation, above anything else we do, represents the Firm. It's the public face of the Firm and it does something that very few law firms do.... It's a unique way of investing resources to achieve an important result.”

James Patton, Jr.

Founding Partner, Patton Boggs

We should all be proud of the Foundation. In just a few years, it has engraved the Firm's name forever in the minds and hearts of all the law students who have been public policy Fellows, and impressed many with its dedication and support to public service.”

Thomas Hale Boggs, Jr.

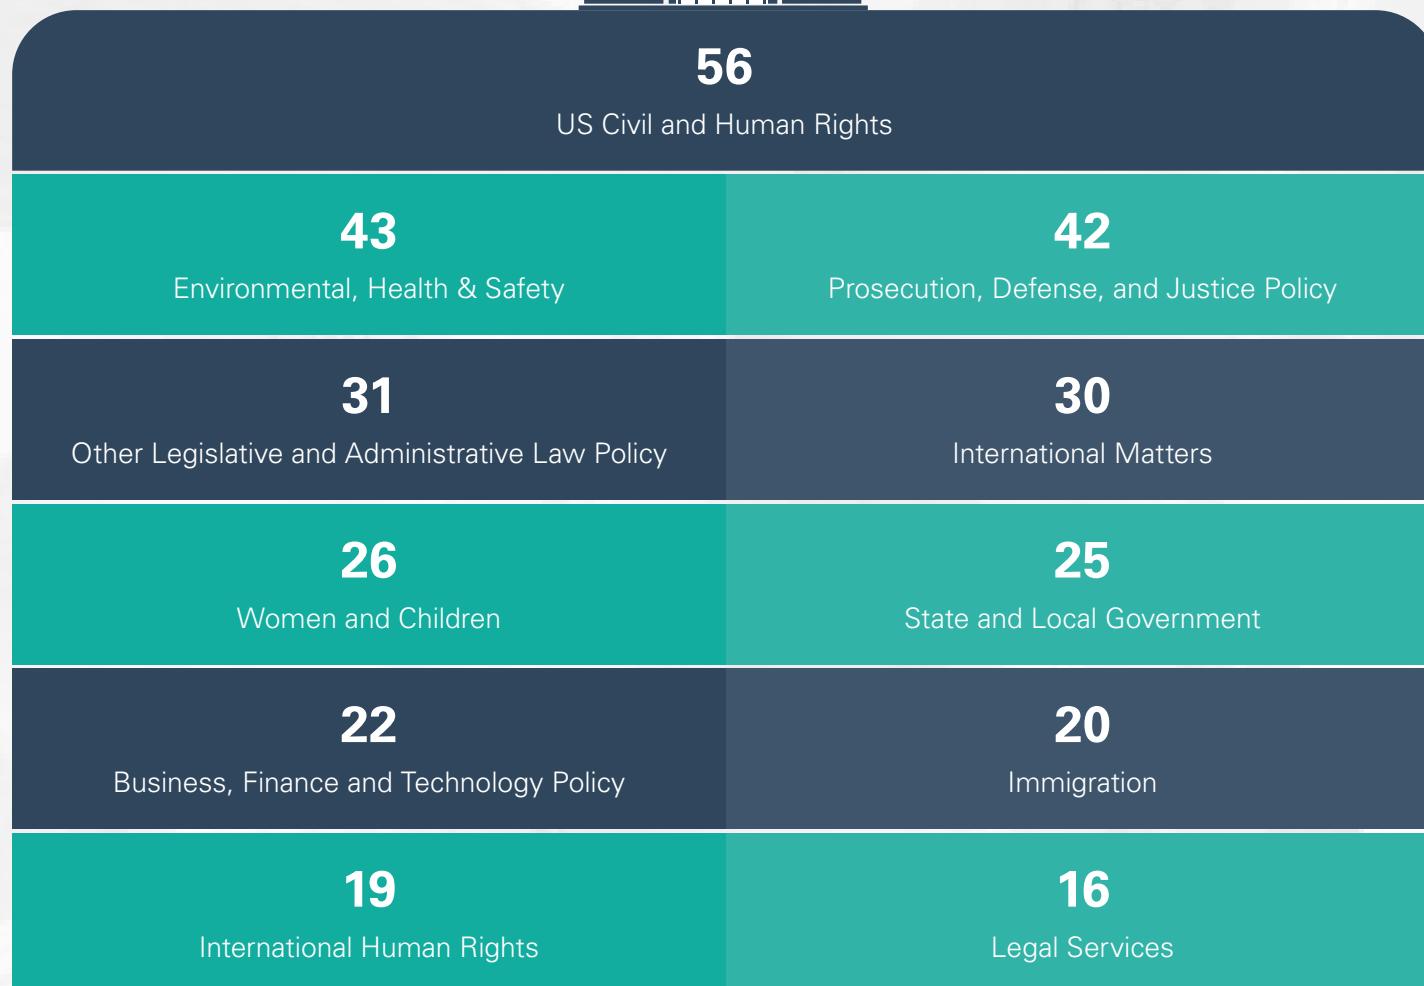

Founding Partner, Patton Boggs

The Foundation's Reach

Since 2005, our Fellows have supported the work of hundreds of organizations and government offices across a broad range of public interest sectors. A full list of organizations can be found here.

Public Interest Sectors

Our Global Impact

The Foundation's Global Footprint

In 2018, the Foundation extended its Fellowship program to Europe with the renowned public policy institute, Le Collège d'Europe. We have had five Fellows from its campus in Bruges, Belgium, and one from its Warsaw campus. Le Collège draws from all over Europe, and Fellows have come from Italy, France, Belgium, Germany, and Poland. Several interned at the US desk at the European Union. One worked at the Warsaw Institute. Fellows from U.S. law schools have served in 24 countries across five continents. Three Fellows from Qatar also have participated in our program. The countries in which our Fellows have served are listed below.

Belgium	Costa Rica	Guatemala	Liberia	Palau	Sierra Leone	Thailand
Botswana	Egypt	Guinea	N. Mariana Islands	Peru	South Africa	Uganda
Brazil	France	Iraq	Netherlands	Poland	Switzerland	United Kingdom
China	Ghana	Israel	Nicaragua	Qatar	Tanzania	United States

Our Fellowship Programs

Public Policy Fellowships

The Foundation's flagship program is the Public Policy Fellowship program, offered each summer to one or more deserving students selected by each of our partner law schools and the Collège d'Europe's public policy institute. At each partner school, students apply for the Fellowship to fund their proposed work with a nonprofit legal organization, NGO or governmental agency. Each selected Fellow receives a stipend, and is mentored by a current or former Squire Patton Boggs attorney, as well as a Fellowship alum. The Foundation also organizes activities throughout the summer to enable the Fellows to learn about their colleagues' Fellowships, discuss issues of common interest, and develop strategies for pursuing career opportunities in the public interest/public policy field. To date, our Public Policy Fellows have served well over 300 governmental and public interest institutions.

Justice Jump Start Fellowships

Initiated in 2024, the Justice Jump Start Fellowship incentivizes graduating law students to begin their careers in public service/public interest law. This Fellowship helps bridge the period between graduation and bar examination passage by funding bar exam and preparation expenses, and partnering with organizations that would provide interim public service work. Eight Justice Jump Start Fellows (three in 2024 and five in 2025) have gone on to work at prosecutors' and public defenders' offices, a state attorney general's office, and immigration and general legal aid clinics. The Foundation plans to expand this program in 2026 and beyond.

Sustained Impact Fellowships

The Foundation grants Sustained Impact Fellowships each summer to Fellows selected on a competitive basis from nominees by our partner law schools. Currently, the Sustained Impact Fellowships are:

- Advancing Justice Fellowship with the Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law (Washington DC) (voting rights or educational opportunities);
- Advancing Justice Fellowship with Lone Star Justice Alliance (Dallas/Austin) (juvenile justice in disadvantaged communities);
- Two Veterans Justice Fellowships with Swords to Plowshares (San Francisco, CA) (assistance to veterans, particularly securing veterans' benefits);
- Human Rights Fellowship with Human Rights Watch (Washington DC) (investigating and reporting on human rights abuses globally); and
- The Joe Brand Human Rights Fellowship with Human Rights First (Washington DC) (promoting respect for human rights and the rule of law in the United States and globally).

In 2026, we will add a Sustained Impact Rural Justice Fellowship with Legal Aid of Southeast and Central Ohio (legal services in rural areas of Southeast Ohio where there are an insufficient number of lawyers to serve the needs of low income residents).

The Sustained Impact Fellowship with Human Rights First was created to honor the late Joe Brand—Squire Patton Boggs partner, Foundation Board member and devoted pro bono advocate for human rights throughout his nearly 60 years of legal practice.

Distinguished Service Award

This year, the Foundation recognized Squire Patton Boggs' George Schutzer as the first recipient of the Distinguished Service to the Foundation Award in appreciation of his distinguished service to the Foundation, especially his roles as incorporator, long-term general counsel and fiduciary.

66

The Foundation has been a major success, and I am proud of the role that I have played in forming it and continuing to advise it."

George Schutzer, Foundation General Counsel and Partner, Squire Patton Boggs

Support the Foundation

Our Foundation relies on widespread support. In this our Silver Anniversary Year, we encourage you to get involved.

Here are ways you can help:

- Contribute to the Foundation
- Mentor one of the Fellows
- Join our Advisory Committee
- Attend Foundation events
- Build the Foundation's presence in your office
- Introduce a friend
- Reach out to Fellowship alumni
- Learn more through our newsletter

Please contact us if you would like to participate in any way at:
