About Alison

Alison Davidson-Cox is a debt finance partner in our Financial Services Practice. Alison specialises in acquisition, corporate and leveraged finance, acting for banks, private credit funds and alternative lenders, as well as private equity investors and corporate borrowers in the mid-market.

Alison advises on senior, super senior, unitranche loans and subordinated facilities, as well as other alternative funding solutions involving banks and private sources of capital, on domestic and cross-border transactions. Alison enjoys helping clients at every stage of the deal life cycle, from initial investment through to portfolio management and exit, and works collaboratively with CFOs, financiers and other professionals on transactions.

Alison has been named in Legal 500 since 2021 as a Rising Star or Next Generation Partner, and in Chambers 2024 as an Up and Coming Partner.

Clients have commented that Alison is "good, committed, and smart", "an excellent lawyer", "extremely knowledgeable and highly regarded in the local market", "thorough and detailed while at the same time efficient and commercial" and "clear-thinking and highly focussed on customer service" (Legal 500 and Chambers quotes).
