About Amy

Amy Doolittle is co-leader of the class action and multidistrict litigation practice and formerly served as a member of the firm's Global Board.

Amy is experienced in handling complex privacy class actions and multidistrict litigation (MDL) proceedings, including data breach, Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) and Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) cases. She has represented clients in all stages of complex, bet-the-company litigation. She has successfully obtained dismissals for lack of personal jurisdiction, standing and failure to state a claim and she has successfully enforced arbitration agreements.

Experience

- Represented defendants in multiple TCPA and mini-TCPA class actions across a variety of industries pending in courts around the country, including in Arizona, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Illinois, Massachusetts, Virginia and Washington.
- Obtaining dismissal of healthcare client in data breach class action for lack of personal jurisdiction.
- Compelling individual arbitration in consumer class action filed in Tennessee federal court.
- Obtaining summary judgment in putative nationwide class action in California federal court alleging violations of the FCRA and California state law, as well as successfully defending victory in the Ninth Circuit.
- Enforcing class action waiver and compelling individual arbitration in a putative nationwide class action alleging financial services company violated the FCRA in connection with conducting background checks on prospective employees.
- Representing a chemical company in an MDL proceeding involving over 3,000 personal injury lawsuits, including coordinating plaintiff fact discovery and expert disclosures and discovery for over 40 plaintiffs.
- Defeating class certification with a motion to strike class allegations prior to discovery in lawsuit against television manufacturer.
- Obtaining dismissal of a putative class action lawsuit against television manufacturer.
- Defeating class certification in a case against a consumer financial service provider alleging claims of usury and fraud and violations of Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO), Truth in Lending Act (TILA) and a state unfair trade practices statute.
- Defeating class certification of a putative nationwide class alleging fraud in the sale of life insurance policies.
- Representing consumer financial service providers in federal and state court class action lawsuits pending across the country and successfully compelling individual arbitration in several lawsuits.
- Representing a financial services company in a representative action in California filed by a government authority challenging a company's operations as unfair business practices.
- Obtaining the dismissal of a client from an insurance brokerage MDL alleging violations of federal and state antitrust laws and RICO.
- Representing a major US retailer of pet food in an MDL proceeding, as well as other federal and state court actions, arising out of the melamine pet food recall of 2007.
- Providing counsel in a landmark arbitration case decided favorably by the US Supreme Court, including arguing the case before the Florida Supreme Court.
- Representing the Unsecured Creditors Committee in the Enron bankruptcy.
- Representing terminated dealers in the Chrysler bankruptcy.
- Representing a major municipality in a multiparty lawsuit alleging contamination of the water supply.
