About Arnaud

Arnaud Moussatoff is a partner in charge of the Restructuring & Insolvency Practice Group in Paris.

Arnaud focuses his practice on industrial and financial restructuring matters implemented through out-of-court (mandat ad hoc et conciliation) and in-court proceedings (sauvegarde/redressement judiciaire).

He advises on turnaround matters, representing debtors in negotiations with shareholders, lenders, the French state, suppliers and others to obtain reorganization agreements. He also advises on distressed M&A matters, representing investment funds and industrial investors investing in underperforming companies through the setting up of complex investment schemes and bespoke security packages with specific expertise in French trust devices (fiducie).

From an insolvency perspective, he represents debtors in the setting up and implementation of reorganization plans through prepackaged solutions or representing investors in judicial business takeover plans. He is also experienced in monitoring international insolvency proceedings relating to group companies based in different jurisdictions or defending creditors' interests against debtors under insolvency proceedings.

In addition, Arnaud advises on litigation matters related to the French insolvency law and post-acquisition litigation.
