About Ben

Ben Tobias is a member of the Public & Infrastructure Finance group. His practice is focused on debt finance solutions for a wide range of public infrastructure projects, with an emphasis on airports, water and sewer utilities, and surface transportation providers. Ben serves clients as bond counsel, disclosure counsel, underwriter's counsel, and borrower's counsel and has a depth of experience with a variety of conduit financing structures. Ben has guided clients through public offerings, direct purchases, multimodal and variable rate tender deals, transactions involving credit enhancement facilities such as letters of credit and liquidity facilities, commercial paper programs and revolving lines of credit. Ben is a member of the National Association of Bond Lawyers.

While in law school, Ben participated in Georgetown Law's Institute for Public Representation, Civil Rights section and interned at the US Department of Justice, Civil Division, Fraud Section. He also interned at the Ohio Supreme Court for former Justice Paul E. Pfeifer and at the Washington Legal Clinic for the Homeless, in Washington DC.
