About Caitlin

Caitlin Steiner is a senior associate in the Tax Strategy & Benefits Practice, where she focuses on employee benefits, including retirement plans, welfare benefit plans and executive compensation.

Caitlin possesses knowledge with respect to benefits and tax statutes including the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA), the Internal Revenue Code, the Affordable Care Act and the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA). Caitlin assists clients with both due diligence and transactional matters with respect to these laws, as well as employee benefit plan document drafting and revision, as well as general compliance questions.

Caitlin also has experience with executive compensation matters including equity and equity-based incentive plans, severance benefits, deferred compensation plans and matters relating to Code Sections 409A and 280G.

Prior to and during law school, Caitlin worked for multiple companies involved in the drafting and administration and review of Qualified Domestic Relations Orders (QDROs), gaining experience with both qualified and nonqualified retirement plans. While working in the QDRO industry, Caitlin received her Retirement Plan Fundamentals Certificate from The American Society of Pension Professionals & Actuaries (ASPPA).
