About Cedric

Cedric Powell is a partner in the Corporate Practice of our Washington DC office, where he advises clients on complex middle-market M&A transactions.

He leverages deep transactional experience to deliver exceptional client service, focusing on risk mitigation and practical, commercially driven solutions across both buy-side and sell-side engagements.

In addition to his broad M&A background, Cedric has extensive experience representing private equity sponsors and their portfolio companies throughout the full investment life cycle. He advises funds on platform acquisitions, add-on transactions, divestitures, recapitalizations and strategic investments across a wide range of industries.

Cedric is particularly skilled at navigating the fast-paced, detail-intensive nature of private equity dealmaking, delivering practical guidance on structuring considerations, diligence strategies and value-creation priorities. His work with leading private equity firms reinforces his ability to anticipate transactional challenges and drive efficient, solutions-oriented outcomes.

Cedric's work spans a broad range of industries, including aerospace, defense, national security, government services, manufacturing, food and beverage, retail, technology, chemical distribution, consumer packaged goods, grocery, third-party logistics and life sciences. He also regularly counsels clients on a variety of corporate and transactional matters, such as equity financings, strategic investments, joint ventures and corporate governance.
