About Chance

Chance McCraw is an associate in the Litigation Practice in our firm's Dallas office. His practice encompasses complex commercial and healthcare litigation, including contract disputes, False Claims Act issues, government investigations, shareholder disputes, securities litigation, and insurance coverage and reimbursement disputes.

Chance has extensive experience at every stage of litigation. He has deposed and defended over a dozen fact and expert witnesses, questioned witnesses at trial, and achieved successful decisions for his clients at arbitration. Chance has successfully managed large case teams, briefed legal issues at every stage of litigation and driven cases to quick conclusions.

Chance enjoys supporting veteran and religious liberty clients with his pro bono services. He has helped veterans succeed in their appeals or claims for benefits. He has also represented members of a religious minority in a lengthy dispute with an issue of first impression certified to the Supreme Court of Texas.

Chance previously clerked for the Honorable Jane J. Boyle of the US District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

Chance graduated from the University of Virginia School of Law where he served as the managing editor of the Journal of International Law and received the Reider-Otis scholarship. He also served on the boards of multiple organizations during law school.

Experience
