About Charlotte

Charlotte Møller is a partner in the Restructuring & Insolvency Practice Group. Charlotte's practice is focused on advising on the restructuring of defaulting facilities and enforcement of security, as well as advising chief restructuring officers and directors of distressed companies more generally, and also insolvency practitioners.

Charlotte has detailed knowledge of the UK Special Administration regime for investment firms and has worked on a large number of cross-border restructurings, primarily in the shipping, airline, energy and natural resources industries. She regularly represents clients regarding the enforcement of security over UK assets, particularly in the context of the sale and purchase of non-performing loan portfolios and real estate.

Experience

- Representing administrators, liquidators and receivers on the disposal of assets and over aspects relating to their appointment.
- Advising lenders and borrowers on bespoke new lend financing and security packages, including litigation funding and art lending.
- Conducting security reviews for secured lenders and providing advice on the refinancing of existing facilities and enforcement strategies.
- Advising turnaround directors and chief restructuring officers on issues of corporate governance and legal aspects of financial and operational restructurings.
- Advising distressed companies and their directors on their options and obligations.
- Advising corporate trustees, servicers, financial institutions, pension trustees and companies on financial restructurings.
