About Christian

Dr. Christian Bleschke advises clients in relation to both national and international taxation issues. This advice includes maximizing the tax efficiency of real estate transactions, handling tax-efficient structuring of M&A transactions, ensuring inbound investments of foreign investors are structured in the most tax-efficient manner and providing tax support to corporate reorganizations. Christian has a strong focus in the real estate sector.

Christian also advises clients in connection with tax disputes, tax audits and binding rulings, including negotiating settlements with the respective tax authority, VAT, the taxation of funds and the establishment of employee share programs.

Christian is a certified specialist in tax law (Fachanwalt für Steuerrecht) and a certified tax advisor (Steuerberater).

He currently lectures at the Academy for Real Estate Management (BBA) in Berlin and presents regular taxation updates for clients in relation to property investment developments and corporation tax issues.
