About Elysia

Elysia Watts is an associate in the Financial Services team, based in the London office.

Elysia qualified in September 2022. She has experience in advising corporate borrowers and lenders on banking transactions, and extensive insight into residential and commercial property development from time spent working in-house at a major UK developer.

Elysia is a member of the firm's Grow Your Network committee and the inclusion and diversity resource groups. Outside the office, Elysia engages with local industry group events and is a member of the Birmingham Law Society.
