About Elżbieta

Elżbieta Żemojtel heads our Warsaw office's International Dispute Resolution Practice. She has nearly 20 years' experience in dispute resolution, litigation, arbitration and criminal defence. She represents Polish and foreign companies from various sectors, including energy, infrastructure, pharmaceutical, retail, food and automotive.

Her legal practice also spans white-collar crimes and investigations. Elżbieta also has experience acting as counsel before the SIDIR arbitration court. She is a well-seasoned commercial and corporate litigation lawyer, often representing clients in multijurisdictional cases. Her broad experience includes contractual and financial disputes.

Recommended in Legal 500 EMEA 2024 in the Dispute Resolution category. Client feedback confirms she is "distinguished by her precision in capturing details and creating an image that perfectly encapsulates the essence of the matter." She is also praised for her ability to easily "remove any barriers and build trust at a high level".

Her reputation within the local litigation and arbitration community, as well as her experience in high-profile investment and commercial arbitrations make her stand out among the new generation of dispute resolution lawyers.
