About Eric

Eric Hu, partner in our Hong Kong office, mainly provides US tax advisory, family wealth succession and protection, as well as family office services.

Eric offers US tax advice and helps to establish and operate structures for high-net-worth individuals on pre-immigration planning, investments in the US and international family planning with US connections. In addition, Eric assists clients in relation to wills, trusts, foundations and family offices, including drafting/reviewing wills and documents for family trusts and foundations, creating complex structures for trusts, foundations and family offices, assisting management, transactions, restructuring and termination in relation to these structures.

Eric has several years' experience in areas of tax and private wealth services. Before joining the firm, Eric was a tax consultant in an international accounting firm and a trust services director in an independent trust company.
