About Erling

Erling Estellon is a partner in the Antitrust & Competition Practice and leads the French competition law team based in Paris.

Erling focuses his practice on a wide range of issues under EU, French and UK FDI and competition laws, with particular emphasis on merger control, foreign investment, abuse of dominance, cartel, distribution and public procurement matters.

Erling's practice has been recognised in Best Lawyers, Leaders League, Décideurs Juridiques and Global Competition Review, and Legal 500 describes him as "devoted to his cases and a hard worker".

In addition, Erling maintains an active pro bono practice, including advising on human rights and environmental matters.

Experience

Antitrust

- Advising an airline in its appeal before the EU General Court in the Airfreight case.
- Advising a world sports association in connection with the successful closure of an investigation by the EU Commission and the Italian Competition Authority by way of agreed commitments.
