About Filip

Filip Filipek is an associate in the firm's Antitrust & Competition Practice based in our London office.

Filip's practice covers contentious and noncontentious EU and UK competition law matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Filip worked as a legal adviser at an international law firm in Brussels where he advised on merger control, antitrust, state aid and regulatory matters, including a "dawn raid" investigation by the European Commission.

Before that, Filip also worked as a trainee at the Directorate-General for Competition of the European Commission and as an EU merger control research assistant at the Leiden Law School's Europa Institute.
