About Grace

Grace King is an associate in the firm's London office, concentrating her practice on government investigations and white collar.

Her experience includes acting in white collar investigations brought by specialist prosecutors and regulatory bodies, including the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA), the National Crime Agency (NCA) and HMRC.

Prior to joining the firm, Grace was a member of the independent Criminal Bar of England and Wales and gained experience at boutique criminal law firms in London. Her practice ranges from acting for clients' pre-charge, through to trial and advising on appeal.

As an advocate, Grace prosecuted and defended in the Criminal Courts in a broad range of criminal offences, including fraud and dishonesty offences, serious violence and sexual offences, quasi-criminal applications and conspiracy matters.
