About Jan

Jan Kubicz is a principal in the Litigation Practice, where he handles a wide range of complex and high-stakes matters.

Jan is no stranger to the courtroom; prior to joining the firm, he amassed extensive jury trial and litigation experience, including countless depositions and considerable motion practice at all stages of the legal process. Jan's experience includes handling criminal matters, civil rights matters and appeals. He has also handled an international dispute involving the Torture Victims Protection Act and the Alien Torts Statute.

While in full-time legal practice, Jan earned a Master of Arts in Global Affairs from Florida International University in Miami. In law school, Jan was a member of the trial team, earning multiple awards and distinctions for outstanding performance in litigation and negotiation competitions. He also completed a judicial internship with Florida Supreme Court Justice the Hon. Barbara Pariente.

Experience
