About Jason

Jason Blakey is a partner in our Litigation team based in Leeds.

Jason specialises in commercial litigation dealing with a wide range of contractual and tortious disputes; corporate litigation involving disputes between shareholders and directors and claims under share purchase agreements; and specialist arbitration, particularly, under the Groceries Supply Code of Practice.

Jason primarily acts for companies, both public limited company's (PLCs) and limited. His experience encompasses a range of business sectors, including manufacturing, energy/utilities, financial services, retail/food and engineering.

Chambers and Partners and Legal 500 quote Jason as "a commercial strategist and able to read the matter and the room exceptionally well, meaning he is always three steps ahead" and a "true tactician and expert in the field."

Experience

Commercial Litigation

- Representing a global supplier of printing presses in various disputes with its customers alleging, amongst other things, breach of contract, breach of warranties and misrepresentation.
