About Julie

Julie Mardini is an associate in the Government Investigations & White Collar Practice, based in our Washington DC office.

Prior to joining the firm, Julie served as a legal intern with the US Department of Justice's Civil Division, FTCA Section. She also served as a management consultant with a consulting and engineering services firm. In this capacity, she worked with open-source intelligence issues and provided communications support to a military hospital.

In addition, Julie studied Arabic while living in Jordan and volunteered with a community service project while living in Jerusalem.
