About Laura

Laura Aber focuses her practice on advising corporate and institutional clients, with significant experience in M&A, venture capital investments and institutional and private equity financings.

She regularly guides clients through complex, multijurisdictional deal structures, helping them navigate complete legal frameworks to achieve seamless transactional execution.

Laura has a particular emphasis on US-UK cross border M&A, where she advises clients on the unique commercial, regulatory and structural considerations that arise in transatlantic transactions. She frequently works with UK based buyers, sellers and investment funds on inbound and outbound transactions, ensuring coordinated execution across jurisdictions and aligning deal strategy with both US and UK legal environments.

In addition, Laura counsels clients on general corporate governance matters and the development and implementation of sophisticated strategic plans, including cross border corporate reorganizations.
