About Laura

Laura Nemeth is a partner in our global Corporate Practice Group and a former member of our Global Board. With over 35 years of experience, she has built a reputation as a trusted adviser to public companies and privately held businesses, advising on a wide range of commercial and general business matters, including mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, and securities law and commercial real estate transactions.

In addition, Laura frequently represents clients in the event ticketing, information technology, sports and entertainment, and renewable energy industries. As part of her comprehensive corporate practice, Laura also assists clients with pre- and post-acquisition restructurings, as well as reorganizations designed to optimize business efficiencies.

She has extensive experience helping clients expand their operations across borders, including representing clients in complex, multijurisdictional acquisition and divestiture transactions. Laura regularly represents non-US clients expanding their operations to the US.

Laura is a leading subject matter expert in the ticketing industry and represents providers of online ticketing solutions and services, global online advertising platforms and digital media companies. She advises clients in their commercial transactions, mergers and acquisitions, and their compliance with the ever-evolving industry regulations at the federal, state and local levels.

Laura's work also spans the information technology, sports and entertainment, and renewable energy sectors. She advises early-stage and mature information technology companies on formation, financing, mergers and acquisitions, commercial transactions, and data security matters. She also advises sports and entertainment industry clients in various commercial transactions, and real estate transactions. In the renewable energy sector, Laura works with companies driving innovation in biofuels, solar power and power generation, helping them structure operations, secure funding and execute critical transactions.
