About Madeline

Madeline (Maddie) Mischler is an associate in the Environmental, Safety & Health Practice Group, based in our Columbus office.

During law school at Case Western Reserve University, Maddie served as a legal intern for the Environmental Law Clinic. She also served as a legal extern for the US Environmental Protection Agency, Region III, and as a judicial extern to the Honorable Judge Dan A. Polster, Northern District Court of Ohio.

Maddie previously worked as a summer associate and paralegal at the firm and held an internship at a global specialty materials manufacturer, where she completed chemical and hazardous waste reports and compiled company safety metrics to identify trends.
