About Majer

Majer Ma is a Financial Services associate in our New York office and is a member of the firm's Private Credit & Direct Lending team. Majer represents financial institutions, private funds and corporations in negotiating, structuring and documenting commercial lending transactions. She also counsels clients on domestic and cross-border financings, including asset-based lending, acquisition financing and project financing, as well as term loan and revolving credit facilities.

In addition to her private credit and direct lending practice, Majer advises clients on matters related to blockchain, digital assets and Web3 technologies.
