About Marcin

Dr. Marcin Wnukowski is a partner heading the corporate mergers and acquisitions (M&A) team in Warsaw, and a member of the firm's Global Corporate Practice Group.

He focuses on corporate law, mergers and acquisitions, and foreign investments in Poland across a broad range of industries, including, in particular, pharmaceuticals, chemicals, automotive, financial services, hotels and hospitality, and real estate.

He regularly advises on corporate reorganizations and regulatory matters. State aid and competition law approvals are among his core practice areas as well. His clients include private equity firms and multinational investors. He serves as outside general counsel to various clients.

Recommended in Legal 500 EMEA 2024 in the Commercial, Corporate and M&A category. Client feedback confirms "collaboration with him is always on the top-quality level". Clients also praise his "fast reaction to requests with clear explanation of different alternatives".

He has authored a number of publications devoted to state aid and co-authored several books on competition law. He often speaks at conferences and seminars on corporate and competition law.
