About Mareike

Mareike Lucht is a senior associate in the Data Privacy, Cybersecurity & Digital Assets Practice based in our Berlin office. She advises and represents clients in national and international privacy compliance, with a special focus on the current development of data privacy laws.

Mareike regularly drafts international data transfers agreements, privacy policies and assists with data subject access requests (DSARs). She handles IT and commercial contracts, in particular in the e-business sector. She further advises national and international clients on M&A transactions and compliance, focusing on data transfers.

Mareike holds an LL.M. from the University of San Diego, California, with a specialisation in US Business and Corporate Law. Before joining the firm, she worked at other prominent law firms in Berlin, Germany, and Los Angeles, California, as an associate and a trainee. She also worked for an internet startup in San Diego.
