About Marta

Marta Robles advises national and international clients on all types of judicial and arbitration proceedings before different institutions (such as the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) and the Madrid Chamber of Commerce). Marta's practice has focused on civil and commercial procedural matters, including contractual and non-contractual liability, interpretation of contracts, damages, corporate disputes, renewable energies, financial and banking products, and distribution and supply contracts, as well as hidden defects. Marta also specialises in cross-border proceedings for the recognition and enforcement in Spain of foreign judicial awards and judgments.

Marta holds a double degree in law and journalism from Universidad San Pablo CEU, where she obtained an Academic Achievement Excellence Scholarship, and she is a lecturer in the Civil Department at University Carlos III, Madrid.

Marta speaks Spanish and English. She has been a member of the Madrid Bar Association since 2015.
