About Mary

Mary Maloney is an associate in the Government Investigations & White Collar Practice. Mary represents clients through all stages of government investigations and white collar matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Mary served as a student lawyer and legal intern working on immigration matters. She handled drafting filings for US Citizenship and Immigration Services for individuals seeking asylum and special immigrant juvenile status. She also worked with several nonprofit organizations in Uruguay, Chile and Colombia, where she supported the growth and development of rural students and provided support to refugees.
