About Maura

Maura McIntyre is a partner in the Restructuring & Insolvency Practice Group.

Her practice focuses on financial restructuring, corporate trust matters, and workout proceedings on behalf of financially distressed companies or their creditors, including representation of debtors; indenture trustees; creditors and creditors' committees; investors; and purchasers, in in-court and out-of-court restructurings.

Maura's insolvency and restructuring practice is bolstered by her trust indenture experience, which has included representation of indenture trustees in Chapter 11 cases, negotiations with ad hoc bondholder groups and advising indenture trustees with respect to obligations in matters concerning defaulted securities.

Experience

- Representing chapter 11 debtors, including Indiana- and Illinois-based continuing care retirement provider Lutheran Home and Services for the Aged, Inc., propane distributor Ferrellgas Partners L.P., West Virginia-based coal producer, Blackjewel LLC and Kentucky-based coal producer, Hartshorne Holdings LLC.
