About Michelle

Michelle Medley is an associate in our Litigation Practice Group, based in our Los Angeles office, whose practice focuses on defending automotive manufacturers in consumer warranty litigation. She has experience representing clients in all stages of litigation, from inception through settlement, arbitration and trial.

Her prior practice included defending corporations in products liability, premises liability, transportation and other complex civil litigation matters. Her experience across a variety of practice areas has given her a well-rounded foundation for representing clients in complex disputes.
