About Morna

Morna Mackenzie is a knowledge lawyer who supports the global practice of the Labour & Employment team.

She manages Global Edge, our award-winning subscription-based platform providing in-depth coverage of labour and employment topics across over 40 jurisdictions for in-house legal teams.

Morna has worked in a number of in-house legal and employee relations roles. Prior to that, Morna was based in our London office, providing advice on all areas of contentious and noncontentious employment law, with a particular emphasis on coordination of overseas advice and multicountry project work.
