About Naomi

Naomi Briercliffe is a partner and solicitor advocate in the International Dispute Resolution Practice Group based in London.

Naomi is ranked by Chambers (UK and Global) and Legal 500 UK in international arbitration and public international law and recommended in the Lexology Arbitration Index. She has been described in the directories as a "brilliant advocate" (Legal 500), a "shrewd lawyer", who is a "superstar", "does amazing work" and is "responsive", "clever, personable and can foster a team of talents in an impressive way" (Chambers 2025).

Naomi represents states, corporates and high net worth individuals across multiple jurisdictions in commercial and treaty arbitrations and before international courts and tribunals. She has experience across a broad range of industries and sectors, including energy (oil and gas, renewables, nuclear and hydroelectricity), mining, infrastructure, aviation, TMT and private equity.

As well as advising clients on disputes, she supports clients in avoiding disputes and mitigating risk at the front-end of transactions, including by assisting with contractual negotiations. Naomi also has experience of enforcement matters before national courts and sits as arbitrator.

Naomi is a member of the Users' Council of the LCIA and sits on the LCIA's EDI Steering Group. She is an Honorary Fellow of the British Institute of International and Comparative Law and sits on the peer review board of the ICSID Review. She is also a faculty member of the GAR Academy on Investor-State Dispute Settlement.

Naomi has represented clients in arbitrations under most major institutional rules, including the ICC, LCIA, AAA, UNCITRAL and ICSID rules. She has also advised clients on matters before the International Court of Justice, Iran-US Claims Tribunal, European Court of Human Rights and African Court of Human and Peoples' Rights.
