About Oksana

Oksana Lashko is the national co-chair of the firm's creditors' committee practice and a partner in the Restructuring & Insolvency Practice based in New York. She is widely recognized for representing official and ad hoc creditors' committees, institutional lenders, bondholders and other significant stakeholders in some of the country's largest and most complex Chapter 11 cases and out-of-court restructurings. As national co-chair, Oksana leads the strategy and growth of one of the firm's core restructuring disciplines.

Throughout her career, Oksana has built a nationally recognized creditors' committee practice, and has served as trusted counsel in high-stakes restructurings across a broad range of industries, including retail, manufacturing, automotive, food and consumer products, healthcare, energy, transportation, shipping and technology. Her experience spans every stage of the restructuring process, including liability management transactions, debtor-in-possession and exit financings, Section 363 sales, cross-border insolvencies, plan negotiations and complex bankruptcy litigation.

Beyond her committee practice, Oksana has extensive experience representing ad hoc creditor groups, secured and unsecured lenders, bondholders, administrative agents, postpetition lenders and other significant stakeholders, as well as companies in Chapter 11 and out-of-court restructurings. She also advises clients on distressed financings, debt capital structures, intercreditor arrangements, syndicated lending transactions and complex commercial litigation arising from distressed situations.
