About Robert

Robert Bastian is a partner in our Corporate Practice Group in our Frankfurt office. He focuses on private equity, M&A and venture capital, as well as capital markets.

His work covers a broad spectrum of companies in various industries, including technology, energy, automotive, machinery, healthcare and the financial and insurance sector.

Robert has been advising numerous highly reputable private equity houses on leveraged buyout transactions and venture capital funds on various transactions. He also advises on public tenders and capital market-related matters, in particular, public takeovers, initial public offerings (IPOs), dual listings and de-listings. Furthermore, Robert has been rendering advice to members of management boards and supervisory boards of listed and nonlisted companies.

Prior to joining our firm, Robert Bastian was head of the private equity practice at an international commercial law firm in Germany, among other positions.
