About Robert

Robert Radigan is a partner in our Public & Infrastructure Finance group focusing on federal income tax matters relating to issues of municipal finance. He has experience in a broad range of tax-exempt financings for governmental and private-activity bond issuers, including governmental general obligation and revenue bonds, qualified 501(c)(3) bonds, qualified mortgage revenue bonds and exempt facility bonds.

Robert has advised single-family and multifamily housing authority issuers and non-profit organizations, including primary, secondary and higher education facilities, charter schools, hospitals and healthcare facilities, senior living facilities and social service organizations, in tax-exempt bond transactions involving pooled financings, current and advance refundings, new money capital projects, volume cap recycling and arbitrage rebate and yield restriction matters.

Prior to joining our firm, Robert was an attorney for a nationally ranked public finance law firm in its New York office.
