About Sabina

Sabina Khan is a senior associate in the Restructuring & Insolvency Practice Group based in the London office. She regularly acts for a range of stakeholders in formal and informal restructurings, (re)financing and insolvency matters, including creditors (alternative lenders, funds, bondholders and banks), insolvency practitioners, debtor companies, directors and regulators.

Sabina has advised on a range of insolvency matters and processes on both the debtor and creditor side, default and enforcement scenarios, solvent and insolvent restructurings, cross-border insolvencies and the sale and purchase of distressed debt.

Sabina has experience across several sectors, including retail, aviation (having acted for regulators, airline companies and aircraft lessors), telecommunications, crypto/blockchain, sports and leisure, hospitality, logistics and real estate.

Prior to joining the firm, Sabina qualified at a US law firm based in London and worked in-house at various investment banks in the derivatives space.
