About Sally

Sally Coleman is a senior practice development lawyer in the Real Estate Practice Group. Although predominantly based in the Birmingham office, she supports the Real Estate team across all UK offices.

With over 25 years' experience working in real estate, both in house and in private practice, Sally has significant transactional experience.

She delivers expertise into the Real Estate team through regular training and updates, supporting delivery of commercial advice to our clients and ensuring that the team is up to date with the law, as well as best legal and market practice. Sally reviews and drafts precedent documents, team policies and practice notes. She monitors AI-driven market solutions to identify those that genuinely offer a benefit to clients.

Sally also identifies topics of interest to clients and writes and edits client updates, as well as supporting clients through training.
