About Samantha

Samantha Caspar is a senior attorney in the Financial Services and Corporate practice groups. She advises public and private companies in a wide range of corporate and commercial financing transactions.

Samantha's substantive experience includes mergers and acquisitions, including public and private mergers, asset acquisitions and stock purchases.

She also regularly handles structuring and negotiating secured and unsecured credit facilities, as well as amending credit arrangements to support business operations and M&A activity. In addition, she counsels clients on corporate governance, legal compliance and industry best practices, and provides guidance on general contract negotiation and analysis.

Experience

Samantha has assisted on a variety of key transactions, including:

- Representing a Maryland-based bank holding company in its strategic merger with a financial services holding company. The transaction was formalized through an agreement and plan of merger and reorganization, positioning the Maryland entity as the surviving corporation.
- Advising a distributor of roofing, waterproofing and exterior products in the refinancing and US$300 million upsize of its existing Term Loan B facility, increasing the total to US$1.275 billion.
- Representing a pharmaceutical company in the sale of its skincare-focused subsidiary to a private investment firm.
- Advising a mortgage lending company in its equity sale to a private investment affiliate, through which the sole owner sold 100% of the company's equity interests.
- Representing a distributor of residential and commercial roofing materials in a secondary public offering of 5 million shares of its common stock by a private equity affiliate.
- Advising a distributor of residential and commercial roofing materials in a US$500 million private offering of senior secured notes due 2030.
- Representing a private equity investment firm in its acquisition of a specialty manufacturing company.
- Advising a national convenience store operator in the sale of 26 retail locations, including fuel stations, to a regional competitor.
- Representing a regional bank holding company in its US$1.4 billion acquisition of a multistate community bank.
- Advising a bank holding company in its agreement to acquire a federally chartered savings bank from a national insurance and financial services group.
