About Takujiro

Takujiro Urabe focuses his practice on corporate matters including venture capital and mergers and acquisitions. He has actively consulted with clients in the telecommunications, aviation, technology and software industries.

His experience includes advising a non-Japan-based company in establishing and implementing its wireless business in Japan, negotiating landing rights for a US airline into Japan and advising on a corporate governance and compliance matter involving an investment in Japan.

In 2006, he moved to the US to attend The George Washington University for his LL.M. He was admitted to practice in New York and spent one year in the Los Angeles office of Squire Patton Boggs before returning to the Tokyo office in 2008.

Experience
