About Timothy

Timothy (Tim) Bramwell's practice focuses on public finance, healthcare finance, securities matters and tax law. He represents issuers, underwriters, trustees, lenders, financial institutions and borrowers in public bond offerings and private placement transactions.

Prior to joining our firm in, Tim was a partner and co-chair of the public finance practice at a leading US law firm, and over his career he has worked on hundreds of transactions with an aggregate principal amount in excess of US$5 billion.

His recent work has focused on tax-exempt financings for:

- Local governments and political subdivisions
- Community development districts and other special districts
- Affordable housing and other exempt facilities
- Qualified 501(c)(3) facilities, including healthcare, senior living and charter schools

Tim frequently serves as bond counsel, disclosure counsel or trustees' counsel on these matters. He also advises taxpayers before the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and state and local tax authorities.
