About Victor

Victor Datry is a member of our International Dispute Resolution Practice Group, based in the Paris office. Victor's practice focuses on commercial and investment arbitration.

He has acted as counsel for Latin American, European, African and Central Asian states, state-owned entities and private sector companies in ICSID, ICC, OHADA, SCC and UNCITRAL arbitrations. These arbitrations have involved various industries, including oil and gas, nuclear, construction, mergers and acquisitions, agriculture and telecommunications, with amounts in dispute ranging from US$60 million to US$12 billion.

Victor's practice also includes international mining, and oil and gas transactions. He has advised clients in the negotiation of petroleum and mining contracts in sub-Saharan African countries.
