About Vladimír

Vladimír Polách handles a diverse array of significant domestic and international disputes, dealing with complex legal and factual issues from various industry areas, including the energy, machinery, petrochemical, automotive, aviation, telecommunications, banking and real estate sectors.

Legal 500 EMEA describes Vladimír as an “excellent lawyer”, while the latest Chambers Europe and Chambers Global editions rank him among the leading dispute resolution experts in the Czech Republic.

Vladimír has advised and represented clients in a number of litigation, arbitration and insolvency cases involving claims for breaches of contracts, warranty claims and post-acquisition claims of substantial value. Vladimír has also advised and represented clients in many court proceedings concerning administrative disputes, contractual disputes, shareholders’ disputes and directors’ liability.

Vladimír has further advised clients in various dispute-related processes, including pre-court action and pre-arbitration notices, as well as communication with governmental authorities, regulators and international institutions.

In addition, Vladimír has assisted clients in various internal corporate investigations and criminal proceedings, including by pursuing claims for damages and advising on the criminal defence of corporations and white collar crime cases.

Furthermore, Vladimír regularly acts as an arbitrator at the Arbitration Court of the Economic Chamber and Agricultural Chamber of the Czech Republic, a leading arbitration institution in the Czech Republic.

Experience

Litigation

- Representing a major Czech and CEE industrial group operating in aluminium, metallurgical and machinery industries in relation to an insurance coverage dispute.

- Representing a supplier of electricity and natural gas in a series of court proceedings involving claims of significant financial value.
- Represented a major US manufacturer and distributor of automotive oils, additives and lubricants in a complex cross-border court dispute with its customer dealing with supply chain issues from various EU and non-EU markets and jurisdictions. We achieved a full victory for the client before Czech courts of all instances, including before the Supreme Court and the Constitutional Court of the Czech Republic.
- Represented a client in Czech court proceedings initiated by a major mining company alleging claims for damages against our client of a significant financial value. The case involved one of the largest disputes regarding claims for compensation of damages resulting from alleged breaches of managerial duty of care in the Czech Republic. All claims brought against our client were successfully defended and the case was settled favourably for the client.
- Represented an Italian machinery industry designer and a chemical engineering company in the pre-litigation phase of a Czech dispute with one of the client's customers in the Czech Republic. The case was settled favourably for the client.
- Represented a Czech subsidiary of a global group of companies providing ground-handling, cargo-handling, fuelling and related airport services in three labour court proceedings. We achieved a full victory for the client in the main dispute and negotiated a favourable settlement in the other two.
- Represented a commercial real estate developer in a court dispute regarding the validity of contracts for the development of a new shopping mall project of substantial value, including the extraordinary appellate proceedings before the Supreme Court of the Czech Republic.
- Represented a leading Czech industrial company, designing and providing solutions in the field of industrial automation, product testers and machine vision systems, in a dispute against an investment fund for damages resulting from the pre-contractual liability (culpa in contrahendo). The case was settled favourably for the client.
- Represented a Czech entity belonging to a global group of companies involved in the manufacture of various types of roofing solutions in a court dispute against a former executive director for the protection of the company's reputation. The client obtained a final and effective judgment from the Czech court, ordering the opposing party to issue a letter of apology and provide our client with compensation of legal costs incurred before the Appellate Court.
- Represented a Czech-Israeli developer against a municipality in the Czech Republic for damages of significant financial value. The case was settled favourably for our client.
- Represented a client in disputes regarding a squeeze out of the client's shares from a company operating an administrative centre in the Czech Republic. The case was settled favourably for the client.
- Represented a Swiss company in court dispute involving claims for payment of unjust enrichment regarding investment and financial services allegedly provided to the client by a Czech company and foreign individuals. The client obtained a final and effective judgment from the Czech court, bestowing the full amount of damages claimed by the client against the opposing party, including the compensation of legal costs.
- Represented a client involved in the development and operation of shopping malls in a court dispute against a tenant of a shopping unit, and its owner, for the compensation of damage and payment of contractual penalties resulting from unlawful termination of a lease contract. The case was settled favourably for our client.

- Represented a US company and its Czech subsidiary in court disputes concerning the client's intellectual property rights to certain innovative chemical processes.
- Represented a Swiss company involved in the international transportation of oil and fuels in pending court proceedings against a Czech company regarding financial claims arising from a settlement agreement. The court has adjudicated all claims brought by our client, including the default interest and legal costs.
- Represented a shopping mall owner in court disputes involving claims arisen from breaches of lease agreements regarding shops with luxury clothes brands. The case was settled favourably for our client.
- Advised a petrochemical company in a court dispute defending against multiple claims for payment of alleged additional consideration under Section 183k of the (former) Commercial Code brought by minority shareholders as a result of squeeze out.
- Advised a company in several court disputes asserting claims against a management board member for breaches of fiduciary duties, including successful extraordinary appellate proceedings before the Supreme Court of the Czech Republic.
- Advised a company in a court dispute concerning contractual claims for remuneration brought by a supervisory board member dealing with various legal issues, including a non-competition clause and the duty of loyalty.
- Advised a petrochemical company in court dispute under Section 147 of the Insolvency Act defending against claims for compensation of damages of substantial value.
- Advised a company in court proceedings under Chapter 5 of the Civil Procedural Code defending against court action for declaration of invalidity of a resolution issued by the Czech National Bank.

Commercial Arbitration

- Represented an energy concern in an ICC arbitration against a supplier of natural gas involving claims of significant financial value. We achieved a full victory for the client.
- Represented a major Czech and CEE group involved in aluminium, metallurgical and machinery industries, in an ICC arbitration against a designer of industrial machines. The case was settled favourably for the client.
- Represented a Czech company operating a successful shopping mall in a commercial arbitration against an international asset manager involving claims for the compensation of damage resulting from the organisation of electricity tenders for the shopping mall and its tenants.
