About William

William Liu advises corporate trustees and agents on international bond and banking financings, with a particular focus on cross-jurisdictional high-yield bond offerings and leveraged finance loan transactions. He regularly acts for trustees and agents on complex, multijurisdictional financing structures.

He also counsels clients, including leading banks and trust companies, on a wide range of distressed and special situations, including liability management exercises, restructurings, transaction workouts, pre-insolvency matters and administrations. William is frequently engaged at the critical stages of a transaction, providing practical and commercially focused advice in high-pressure and time-sensitive scenarios.
