

David M. Feinberg

Executive Vice President, General Counsel & Corporate Secretary, American Electric Power

David M. Feinberg is executive vice president, general counsel and secretary of American Electric Power. He is responsible for all corporate legal affairs and supervision of AEP's Legal Department. Mr. Feinberg joined AEP as senior vice president and general counsel of AEP Service Corporation in May 2011.

Prior to joining AEP, he was vice president, general counsel and corporate secretary of Allegheny Energy, Inc., a position he held from October 2006 to February 2011. From 2004 to 2006, he served Allegheny Energy as senior litigation counsel and later as deputy general counsel and corporate compliance officer. Before joining Allegheny, Mr. Feinberg was a partner in the law firm of Jenner & Block in Chicago, where he specialized in complex commercial litigation. He also served as a clerk to the Honorable Joel M. Flaum of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

He received his juris doctorate degree from Harvard Law School where he was editor-in-chief of the Journal of Law and Technology. He holds a bachelor of science in Mechanical Engineering and Applied Mechanics and a bachelor of arts in Psychology, both from the University of Pennsylvania.

He services on the Board of Trustees of CAPA and the board of the Columbus Police Foundation. He is also a member of the Association of Corporate Counsel.

He and his wife, Felicia, have two daughters and reside in New Albany, Ohio.

Michelle Proia Roe

General Counsel – Americas & Secretary, Mettler Toledo

Michelle Proia Roe is General Counsel-Americas & Secretary for Mettler-Toledo, LLC in Columbus, Ohio. Mettler-Toledo, a global manufacturer of precision instruments, has its world headquarters in Switzerland and is publicly traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

Michelle oversees all legal matters in the Americas, including commercial transactions, litigation, employment law and other areas. She is also extensively involved in legal affairs for Mettler-Toledo's businesses in South America. She also has lead supervisory responsibility over Mettler-Toledo attorneys in the Company's Legal Competence Center headquartered in Mumbai, India. Mettler-Toledo's global workforce exceeds 10,000 employees.

Prior to joining Mettler-Toledo, Michelle was Associate General Counsel of RPM International Inc. in Medina, OH and Assistant General Counsel of Wheeling-Pittsburgh Steel in Wheeling, WV. While at Wheeling-Pitt, Michelle successfully navigated the company as its sole in-house counsel through a successful Chapter 11 reorganization proceeding caused by the domestic steel crisis at the time. Wheeling-Pitt had a significant unionized workforce in which major concessions were negotiated by the Company, in part allowing Wheeling-Pitt to become the only domestic steel company to ever emerge from a Chapter 11 case as a stand-alone entity.

She is the Immediate Past President of the Ohio Women's Bar Association and also serves on the Board of U-CO Industries, Inc. in Marysville, Ohio. Michelle was also a Past President of the Northeast Ohio Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC). Michelle also currently co-chairs her employer's United Way Campaign in North America.

Michelle is a cum laude graduate of the University of Rochester, where she received her degree in Political Science, with a certification in International Relations. She received her J.D. from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law in 1995 and was Executive Editor of the School's Journal of Law & Commerce.
