We recently served as co-bond counsel in connection with the issuance by the Airport Commission of the City and County of San Francisco of US$1.764 billion of bonds, issued in four series, to finance and refinance projects at San Francisco International Airport (SFO). The Series 2019 Bonds are the largest single bond transaction to date in the airport’s history.

SFO is in the midst of a US$7 billion capital improvement program to expand and improve the airport’s facilities, as the airport has seen total passenger traffic grow 58.1% over the past 10 fiscal years, with a significant 7.2% increase alone in fiscal year 2017-2018 compared to the prior year. The approved capital improvement plan involves 56 projects through fiscal year 2023, and includes upgrades to aging infrastructure to address passenger traffic growth and congestion at terminal gates.

The firm has also served as lead bond counsel for the airport’s commercial paper program since 2012. The team serving as lead bond counsel for the Series 2019 Bonds included Bob Eidnier (Cleveland), Johnny Hutchinson (Houston), Ed Sinick (New York), Alethia Nancoo (Washington DC) and Nathan Treu (San Francisco).
